iCAN
an Amity programme

FOR DADS

This one-to-one parenting programme is practitioner guided. It's designed for parents and carers with a child aged up to 18 and focuses on increasing parenting skills, confidence and self-esteem.

Who's it for?

Multi-agency practitioners working with adults who are committed to working with a couple or individual over six sessions.

How is the supporting training delivered?

-  Full-day
-  All resources included.
-  Maximum 20 learners per session.
-  Face to face.

What else do you need to know?

Once trained you will receive an individual Amity licence which you can use long as you remain in the purchasing organisation. Licences to deliver this programme are given on a person-by-person basis, so only those trained by Amity are licenced to deliver the sessions.
